

i am writing to urge you not to allow further concentration of media ownership. at present our democracy is suffering because important information is not carried by much corporate media.